Renewal Retreats and Vacations

Ministers often need more than a vacation or a weekly counseling session to resolve long-standing or crisis-centered problems in the family or work situation. A time away from everyday stress, in a vacation-like setting combining rest and reflection, is often the ideal answer. A retreat is a good place to begin healing and restoration from any hurtful or debilitating life experience. (Examples include burnout, church conflict, forced termination, marital problems, personal loss and grief, or even less catastrophic problems such as persistent feelings of inadequacy and ineffectiveness.)

Other ministers may not require intensive healing or counseling but simply need time away. In the following listings you will find wonderful vacation spots for couples — or the whole family — to enjoy.

Note: The following listings are not recommendations, but are supplied for informational purposes only. States are listed in alphabetical order.

When was the last time that you looked at nature and sighed? When was the last time you heard the birds talk to each other? When was the last time you stopped the car to watch the sunset? When was the last time you just stopped and listened to the wind as it set the leaves to dancing making the sound of their creator? When was the last time that your heart was truly at rest? Once you heart begins to rest you will understand that God is trying to ask you 'Do you see me? Do you want to see more of me?' Open your eyes to the mysteries and the beauty of God. God is pursuing you, but in the busyness of your day you may not see Him wooing and romancing you. God is in love with you! Do you need a place where everything stops and rest is the order of the day? Do you need to get away to a 'sanctuary'? A 'sanctuary' is place where you can stop and spend time with the One who has been pursuing you all of your life. A 'sanctuary' is a place where you can restore the joy you first felt when you met God. Is it time for you to reconnect with the One who yearns to have communion with you in the cool of the morning? At Sanctuary we have created an environment where quiet and peace are the norm. During you stay here you will NOT have people dropping in for counseling, deadlines or meetings. At Sanctuary you will have:

Time for personal worship

Time for personal reading

Time for a walk in the Ponderosa Pines and the Aspens

Time for a nap

Time to reflect on where your ministry has been and discern where God wants it to go

Time to listen to the waterfall and watch as wildlife walks through the property

Time to hear God's voice in the stillness

Has the enemy stolen your time? Has the enemy stolen your joy? At Sanctuary you will have time to rest, reflect, get inspiration, and hear what revelation God has been speaking to you. Even Jesus needed time away to be renewed and to hear where God was leading him next. Mark 6:31 "Come away to a quiet place and rest awhile."

CONTACT: J. Blair & Wendy L. Dalton, Founders/Directors

COST: $3,995.00 per couple for a 9-day Renewal Retreat (including first-class accommodations, gourmet meals, all ministry materials, and six months follow-up).

Renewal Ministries is a non-denominational ministry of care and counsel for pastor couples dealing with (or hoping to avert the effects of) stress and burnout in ministry and marriage. Nine-day Renewal Retreats (Intensives) provide a safe, nurturing environment to experience spiritual renewal and address critical clergy issues that often become "ministry and marriage killers" if left unaddressed. Special emphasis is placed on matters of spiritual leadership and biblical priorities as they pertain to the "preventative maintenance" and "restorative" concerns of clergy.

Currently, Intensives are for only one clergy couple at a time and focus on problem-solving specific ministry or marriage issues. These customized nine-day respites are held in the Colorado high country at Beaver Creek, Estes Park, or Breckenridge, Colorado.

The consulting services of Renewal Ministries are available to churches and denominations on problem-solving issues usually relating to pastor care, shepherd/sheep relationships and conflict resolution. "Church solutions ... through biblical models of problem solving."

Blair also conducts spiritual leadership training sessions (for pastors and elders) and occasionally accepts teaching or preaching engagements at churches as opportunities to minister to congregations regarding pastor appreciation and shepherd/sheep reconciliation issues.

In our fast paced life, our most important relationships often suffer. We lose sense of ourselves and, at times, even our sense of direction and purpose. Healing Springs Retreat Center is a place to step outside the demands and drives of our world to make contact with God and His peace and presence. Whether it's our personal lives, our marriages, or our ministries, Healing Springs Retreat Center is a place to step aside for a brief time to be loved on by God and to allow healing.

The setting is peaceful and serene. The retreat house is called Casa de Amor, or House of Love, and refers to a place to experience God's healing love. It is located with a beautiful view into the woods from both the first and second floor decks. Each individual, couple, or group attending will have access to counseling and guidance with Dr. Harold Rhoades, a licensed psychologist with over 20 years of experience as a Christian Counselor and retreat facilitator. Each bedroom has its own bath and there is a completely equipped kitchen on each floor. Privacy in time of searching is important, as there will at most be two guests or individuals present at a time, and as there are two completely separate levels of the house, privacy is assured. There is an exercise room which has a weight machine, tread mill, and glider. There is a beautiful two-acre pond available for rest and reflection as well as woods to walk in and spend time reflecting on the beauty of God's world. During the stay, journaling will be encouraged and various books may be recommended which are relevant to the purpose of the person our couple on retreat.

Cost: Varies depending on length and structure of visit

His High Places is a Christian counseling ministry that specializes in pastoral care. We repair and heal severe woundedness and brokenness, through Christian counseling, restoration and spiritual redirection. Sexual immorality, anxiety, depression, ministry burn-out and infidelity are just some of the many areas for which we have seen healing.

All sessions are conducted one-on-one in a private setting. We have over thirty years of experience and have participated in repairing the breach for over 2,000 clients. The majority of those who have come to His High Places are living in victory and still walking out the breakthrough they experienced here. Set in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains of Western North Carolina, His High Places (HHP) was organized in July of 1980 by Sam and Anita McMillan. His High Places is a non-profit Christian ministry. Our approach is Christ and Scripture-centered. The McMillan's are both licensed professional counselors and charter members of the American Association of Christian Counselors (AACC). We have a team of highly trained and gifted team members. A typical stay includes 5 nights and 6 days with twice-daily sessions for diagnostic listening, teaching, worship, and deep prayer to address root issues. There are also assignments in specific books, audio and video tapes, good food, unstructured "reflection time" and lots of prayer.

Out of this balanced approach the Holy Spirit is free to minister what is needed and direct us in a "game plan" for a changed life back home.

Both Big South Fork National River & Recreation area and Pickett State Park are within five miles. Two cabins share 8 acres and there is a swing set, slide and wading pool for the little ones as well as lots of outdoor equipment such as volleyball, badminton, horseshoes and table tennis.

Our county has more arches and rock formations than any county in Tennessee and you can hike to many of these. They are listed on the website. Information in the cabins shows driving tours, hiking maps, horseback riding, rafting and canoeing concessions, swimming pool, a waterfall and scenic Rugby which is on the National Register of Historic sites. You can tour a coal mine or ride a scenic train to an old mining area.

Or, if your goal is to relax, you can accomplish that also. The cabins are back from the road a good distance and it is very quiet. Crossville, TN has several golf courses if you want to play a round or two.

We are open all year.
